LEARNER ANALYSIS

	Question To Ask The Teacher	Question To Ask The Teacher
STUDENT CHARACTERISTICS	How would you describe the students?	How will you deal with this student characteristic?
Students' current knowledge level:	Students don't remember much about the industrial revolution.	Cover the topic thoroughly with specific examples.
Students' attitude about topic: Interested? Preferences for this?	Students aren't really interested in history.	Find ways to make it interesting. Show them something to look at & not just give them words to read.
Students' abilities to learn through text, audio, video/visual: (reading level? computer experience? English language ability? Apply Section 508 for access for blind or deaf?)	Students learn best through video, visual. Probably can't read on 11 th or 12 th grade reading level. Some students are immigrants and don't know a lot of English yet.	Provide visuals, video-like examples Do everything on an 8 th grade reading level. Use simple sentences and vocabulary as much as possible.
Students' aptitude to learn the content:	Students can learn this content best in a project-based environment	Have students work on a research project. Let them work on teams.
